

Indecent Exposures

The Media's Corruption Role

Hear fascinating, informative and provocative contributions from:

- Quentin Dempster - Author, ABC political reporter - currently presenter of "Stateline", NSW - Investigative Journalist. 1986 TV documentary "The Sunshine System" exposing institutionalised corruption in Qld; coverage of Fitzgerald/Wood royal commissions; Staff-elected Director ABC board 1992-96.
- Evan Whitton - Journalist, Author, multiple winner of the Walkley Award (Australian equivalent of the Pulitzer), previous Journalist of the Year winner for reporting on Royal Commissions
- Tony Harris, Journalist & commentator, Australian Financial Review, NSW Auditor-General (1992-99)
- Kerrie Henderson – Principal of Henderson Walton Consulting, member of the 2UE Cash-for-Comment Australian Broadcasting Authority Inquiry Panel, former staff of St James Ethics Centre
- Brian Martin - Associate Professor in Science, Technology and Society at the University of Wollongong.
- Susan Templeman - Co-founder of leading media/crisis communication training company The Jordan Templeman Group. Media trainer for ten years. Formerly with 2UE Canberra Press Gallery, and New York foreign correspondent. Worked in the UK for the Austereo Network, and news editor for a major British commercial radio network.
- Paul Willoughby - Director Strategic Communication, RTA, Former Director Corporate Affairs, Olympic Roads and Transport Authority
- Kathryn Flynn, PhD Student in Journalism, UTS researching the relationship between medicare, fraud and the media.

Senior managers, media/corporate affairs managers, HR practitioners, journalists internal auditors, risk management specialists, investigators, law enforcement bodies, - you cannot miss this conference !

DISCOVER the critical importance of the media's role in promoting good governance and controlling corruption

ENHANCE your organisation's corruption prevention strategy by factoring in the media's role in investigating and reporting corruption.

UTILIZE a media exposure to create positive changes in workplace values and processes.

NETWORK with your colleagues in the corruption prevention profession.

IMPROVE your investigation techniques by hearing how investigative journalists discover the truth.

MANAGE key ethical and legal issues - privacy, balancing openness and confidentiality, accountability, whistleblowers, relationships with watchdog bodies.

DEVELOP effective internal communications strategies. Protect the interests of staff during a negative media exposure.

PROVIDE your CEO and Executive management with value-added advice about handling media exposures through the media or Parliament.

UNDERSTAND the limitations of the media in exposing corruption - hear some fascinating case studies

FORUM REGISTRATION FORM

Conference date: Thursday 16 August 2001

"The Dockside" The Balcony Level, Cockle Bay Wharf, Darling Park

Where? "The Dockside" (right on the water at Cockle Bay Wharf Darling Harbour)

Time 8.30am - 4.30 pm

Cost Only $180.00 (total - GST is not applicable; tax invoice is not required)
This includes an excellent lunch, morning and afternoon tea and post conference drinks!

Enquires Barry Munns

Phone 02 9514 3122 Fax 02 9514 3125

E-mail barry.munns@uts.edu.au

Registration & Payment To: Corruption Prevention Network Inc, PO Box A2148, SYDNEY SOUTH 1235

Surname _____

First Name _____

Position _____

Organisation _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Fax _____

E-mail _____

Refunds: Registered participants are liable for full registration fee unless cancellation is received by 8 August 2001.

Disclaimer: The Corruption Prevention Network Inc Members disclaim liability to anyone relying on, or to anyone affected by anyone relying on the information presented in this forum.

WHAT IS THE CORRUPTION PREVENTION NETWORK (CPN)?

"Lets help each other". That's the key to what the Corruption Prevention Network is about. People involved in preventing fraud and corruption using a range of mediums & forums to exchange information and ideas. Check our website ! www.corruptionprevention.net

The CPN is administered through a committee of elected volunteer public officials who are practitioners in corruption prevention. The Audit Office of NSW, NSW Independent Commission Against Corruption, NSW Ombudsman and the NSW Police Service provides support.

The CPN seeks to broaden its contact base and welcomes the participation of anybody in Australia and internationally, from both the private and public sector, who is interested in preventing fraud and corruption.

The CPN achieves its mission by conducting public conferences, maintaining a web page, operating an e-mail forum as a discussion and information exchange, publishing newsletters and establishing strategic links with other organisations whose interests align with the CPN's mission.